

IT IS TO BE "short horse soon carried" with this session of the Legislature, and it is probable that some important measures will be overlooked. The matter of inducing immigration from the United States is one that should have the attention of the members without much delay. The more people that are here permanently the better will be the business of every store keeper on the islands.

A good farmer is worth something to the store keeper who sells honest goods at low prices, that's us. We are offering ribbons all widths at prices that actually make us ashamed to tell you what they are. The coats of our rivals turn green with envy when they hear of them. We have them in every conceivable shade.

Our stock of underwear has never been equalled, much less excelled in either quality or price. It is absolutely the best at what you pay for a second or third class article. It was only by chance that we secured the stock of a well known dealer in San Francisco, (overstocked was his excuse for disposing of it), and as we got them far below the market value we are enabled to give you the benefit of our good luck. They're going rapidly, these suits, and you must speak quick if you want them.

If you are thinking about getting a riding or bicycle suit you had better look into our ladies, cloth and serges. The quality is right and so is the price. All shades and desirable widths.

"A CHIEF'S AMONG US,"

He Touches Up Honolulu in a San Francisco Periodical.

Chic, "a fortnightly journal of the period," published in San Francisco, has the following under the head "Hawaii" in its issue of June 22:

Except for the politicians (no small portion of the adult population), the past few weeks have been exceptionally dull for pleasure-seekers, or the small leisure class of Honolulu.

Functions more or less important of a semi-political character have been frequent, but it is sad that up to date no Hawaiian "after dinner" orator has developed. Various citizens guard reunions, and more or less substantial refreshments have so far kindled a lot of mutual admiration stuff, but not much of the conciliatory or the natural. There is a good deal of the opera bouffe in the political life of Hawaii, but only to the non-partisan observer such as Chic. One feels like asking: "Do you really mean it?" These semi-political, semi-social reunions do not contrast favorably with the palace entertainments of bygone days. Three artistic elements are lacking—grace, music, song. British Commissioner A. G. S. Hayes is all right (by the way, no connection of your doughty club warrior of same name). He is a gentleman of polish, dignity, courage, and, of course, patriotism. All these qualities were displayed, on May 24th, the Queen's birthday. Had Victoria been there to witness the elegance with which her first appearance was commemorated, she would have been quite content to recognize the hospitality of her representative as above par and worthy of his station. There were many guests, and among them was a spirit of unity, notwithstanding the fact that a great many of them were Americans who had but recently been introduced to the atmosphere of royal occasions, and from many a pair of American lips came the expression: "Johnny Bull is not so bad after all." In fact, English and Americans are on better terms here now, as a result of this little social affair, than they have been for many a long day past. The usual bogie rumor that Great Britain is reaching out for Hawaii is now more than ever in order. It only needs one more entertainment by Brother Hawes to do the trick.

New life, and increased popularity have been assured to the Bank of Bishop & Co., by its passing to the control of Mr. Damon. Some of you San Franciscans of the inner financial circles are acquainted with Mr. Charles R. Bishop, now Vice-President of the Bank of California, and founder of the local house referred to. He was its guiding hand for many years. As a conservative banker, Mr. Bishop's fame is more than local. No man has done more for the advancement, material and moral, of native Hawaiians than he. His late wife was the last of the Kamehameha stock. She declined the crown offered to her before the accession of Kalakaua. But above all, she was a woman endowed with a kind heart and blessed with a kind tongue. Some day I must tell you something of what this good woman did in her day, and what, from Beyond, she is doing for the native race today. The name should always be written in full—Bernice Pauahi Bishop.

Mr. Samuel M. Damon, who for a consideration of $800,000 succeeds to the control and sole management of the Bank, is a native of the Islands, and of the much-abused, little-understood "missionary" stock. He is our Minister of Finance and, I doubt not, not only the ablest authority on financial matters in the country, but personally the most popular man. Why? He possesses that unique feature, a level head. He is what we call in the West with such meaning as no other adjective conveys, a "square" man. That you will ever see much of him on the Coast is doubtful. He loves his Island home, and its people, white and black. His departure would be a national calamity. SCUTAMI.
